

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

THIS month's Pearson's Magazine gives the true facts by an eye witness of the shackling of President Davis, of the Southern Confederacy, and confirms the impression that President Roosevelt's estimate of Gen. Miles, who ordered the cowardly act done, is correct. He is absolutely worthy of no consideration by the Southern people. In fact, he merits the supreme contempt for the base humiliation he put on their beloved leader. If the general has political aspirations he had as well curb them. His name is Dennis since the damaging revelation.

SOME good friend of Senator Blackburn sends us a book, telling of the many great things that gentleman has done in both Houses of the National Legislature, the greatest of which was the pulling of a colleague's ear. A man with a record so good should have opposition for no office he seeks and Judge Paynter will doubtless quit the race after he carefully peruses the latest literary contribution, "What Has Blackburn Done?"

EVERY one who has seen his matchless portrayal of Rip Van Winkle will rejoice to know that the illness which threatened to put Joseph Jefferson to a longer sleep than old Rip experienced has been mastered and hopes are now entertained that he will live much longer and continue to prosper. LATER—Sine the above was put in type the old actor has crossed the river of death and now sleeps the sleep that knows no waking.

THE marriage of a niece of Andrew Carnegie to a coachman has caused great excitement in Pittsburgh and New York, but reports say the coachman is a capable one, and while he may not make as much money as a sleeping car porter, we see no cause for alarm about his failure to provide for his bhinnie bride. The New York and Pittsburgh people should have something real exciting to gab about.

WHILE the two branches of the prohibition party fought for supremacy in the home of the original Keeley cure hospital at Dwight, Ill., the supporters of saloons slipped into power. Dwight, whose title to fame comes from the fact that the big Keeley Institute is located there, for the first time in 24 years has let down the bars for the sellers of liquors.

CALEB POWERS has secured the assistance of Ex-Gov. Richard Yates, of Illinois, to prevent justice being meted out to him at his fourth trial at Georgetown in May. The securing of additional counsel leads us to believe that Caleb feels his guilt and imagines he almost feels the halter draw.

THE Philadelphia Press wants to know if a woman's kiss is worth $50,000. Nay, verily, if she lives in the Quaker City, but if you are talking of a Kentucky woman, that's a different matter. There are women in the Blue Grass State that it would be cheap to kiss at $100,000 per.

So fashionable is appendicitis in British society circles that, says London Opinion, many women would rather have it "than a three-quarter length photograph in a magazine." The disease is getting almost as fashionable in Kentucky.

EDWARD ATKINSON, an authority on the subject, having figured closely, finds that a woman can dress herself handsomely on $65 a year. Who will be the first good woman to prove that Mr. A. knows what he is talking about?

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says if the demand for governmental ownership continues to spread, the women will soon insist on the government taking charge of the department stores.

SUSAN B. ANTHONY says that women have too many children. As Susan's next will be her first, she has no kick coming in that respect.

POLITICAL.

Senator Laban Phelps has withdrawn from the race for mayor of Louisville. Prof. W. P. Baugh, of Science Hill, has announced for Representative of Pulaski.

President Roosevelt has accepted Mayor Dunne's invitation to stop over in Chicago on his way back from the West.

The anti-boycott bill passed by the Colorado Legislature was signed by Gov. McDonald. Violation of its provisions is punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both.

Major Wm. M. Armstrong, of Cleveland, O., formerly editor of the Plain Dealer of that city, who is said to have suggested the rooster as the emblem of the democratic party, is dead.

Hon. Charles A. Towne says that the present tendency toward what is called "radicalism" is an outgrowth of disobedience to the law on the part of the great combinations seeking to establish monopoly.

Senator Orville H. Platt died at his home in Washington, Conn., after a long illness. The immediate cause of his death was the breaking of an abscess which had formed in the right lung. Strangulation ensued. The Senator was conscious and apparently without pain until the last moment.

Gov. Beckham commuted from life imprisonment to two years the term of James Mise, of Laurel county, an inmate of the State penitentiary. Mise was sent up in October, 1903, upon conviction of having killed Elisha Whittaker. The judges of the court of appeals recommended clemency.

Editor W. P. Walton, who has been anxious to launch a newspaper in Frankfort or purchase the Kentucky Journal, has made a deal with the owners of the Journal, and will take charge of the sheet at once. He is one of the most fearless journalists in Kentucky and will, within a very short time, thoroughly rejuvenate the Journal.—Advocate.

A meeting of the Stockholders and Directors of the Cumberland & Nashville Railroad Company was held at Burnside, and it was definitely determined to begin the construction of the proposed railroad from Corbin to Nashville, the coming summer, and a contract was authorized to be entered into with a Cincinnati Construction Company at once for the building of 20 miles of the road from Burnside to Monticello, via Mill Springs.—Somerset Journal.

FOR SALE!

McKINNEY ROLLER MILLS.

I offer for sale my mill and residence in McKinney, Ky. Mill has flour capacity of 50 barrels and meal 100 bushels per day. Mill is well equipped with modern machinery in good repair. Has storage capacity of 5,000 bushels of wheat; also large corn bins and cribs. Wagon scales operated from office, coal bins and ice house. All under roof. Never falling water in mill lot. Mill is within 100 feet of Cincinnati Southern R. R. track and has private siding. The location is good for the following reasons: McKinney is nearest market to many of the largest wheat and corn growers in Lincoln county, large territory furnishing custom grinding. The feed and coal business in connection with mill pays well. No trouble to market all products from mill. Residence is a two-story, six room frame, with cistern on back porch. Milk house at back door cemented; all comparatively new. Large barn, buggy house in mill lot. On account of my failing eyesight and health, generally, my physicians have advised me to quit the milling business. For further particulars call on or address Dr. Edw. Alcorn, Hustonville, Ky., or W. B. McKinney, Stanford, Ky.

DIGNITY DARE

No. 1982, Vol. 5, A. S. H. R.

Mahogany bay, black points, white only on left hind foot, 9 years old, 15 3/4 hands high, weighs 1,300 pounds, strong, flat bone, heavy mane and tail, good back, with long, crany, tapering neck, well set in high-mounted shoulders, a saddle horse head and ear on him a model under halter, always wears blue string in model rings, wonderful style in harness, a show horse sure. When one year old wore all honors in his class harness shows; also the blue tie in sweep-stake harness rings at same age. When a 3-year-old he was shown 14 times and wore 13 blue strings; has never been defeated in fancy harness rings; has always been the victor in stallion stake ring, as a breeder, when shown with three or more of his get, for size, style and general conformation, and for all purposes. He is a saddle horse with five distinct gaits, fast line acting racker, good in two walks and a nice looper; very positive in his trot under saddle and in harness, great all around action. As is required for an up-to-date sire of high priced sale horse for saddle or harness. He is a sure enough harness horse, graceful, stylish and fast; can show elights in 18 1/2 seconds, a 2:28 gait, with but little handling; did this last fall one year ago, after serving 91 mares in the spring. He is possessed of wonderful nerve and speed enough to get a trotter for track use or gentlemen's roadsters; large, handsome, stylish, heavy and strong enough to get carriage horses with a kindly disposition for all purposes of a family horse. He is the horse to sire parkers, stylish, graceful, substance and docility. It has been given up by horsemen that he is one of the most uniform breeders in Kentucky. He types his colts after himself; has never sired a sorrel colt. The most profitable horse for the farmer and small breeder to produce is the horse which serves the widest range of purposes well. His colts are show colts; of the very highest type, blue string winners from the oldest to the youngest.

MASTIC MIXED PAINT

for painting houses. The reason's plain. Mastic is the purest, therefore the most durable and economical. There is a whole string of "other fellows" claiming "just as good as Mastic" but they don't prove it. Maybe they can't. The analysis of Mastic is published. It's made of pure lead, zinc and linseed oil—the most durable kind of paint—and its purity is therefore unquestioned.

As purity means durability, the splendid wearing qualities of Mastic have given it the title of "The Kind That Lasts," and this title is backed up by our absolute guarantee. Mastic is made by PEASLEE-GAULBERT CO., Inc. LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY and we heartily recommend it to your trade.
